

Staff Packing List

As we are a uniform camp it is important that staff are in uniform colors at all times and dress in a manner that is appropriate and a proper image for children. Please no string bikinis or skimpy shorts or shirts that show underwear.

The packing list below is a guide, please adhere to the uniform requirements and ensure you bring the necessary items of clothing. When packing, remember to take into consideration that there is limited space and storage in the bunks and dorms.

Labels - it is important to label each article of clothing and equipment.

Laundry - is done once a week in the camp laundry or staff can use the coin laundry on time off.

Required Uniform Items: please note all clothing must be plain uniform colors without graphics or logos, other than the official camp logo.

Blue Ridge Counselors:

Minimum of 6 white t-shirts, 6 plain grey t-shirts (with short sleeves, no sleeveless shirts)

Minimum of 6 pairs navy blue, grey or white shorts

Minimum of 2 blue or grey sweatshirts and sweatpants (can get cold in the mornings and evenings)

Equinunk Counselors:

Minimum of 6 red or grey t-shirts (with short sleeves, no sleeveless shirts)

Minimum of 6 red, grey, black or dark colored shorts

Minimum of 2 red, grey, black or dark colored sweat pants and sweatshirts

Blue Ridge Support Staff:

Minimum of 4 plain white t-shirts & 4 plain grey t-shirts (with short sleeves, no sleeveless shirts)

Shorts - blue, grey or white

Sweat pants and sweat shirts - blue, grey or black

Equinunk Support Staff:

Minimum of 4 plain white t-shirts & 4 plain grey t-shirts (with short sleeves, no sleeveless shirts)

Shorts - red, grey, black or any dark color

Sweat pants and sweat shirts - red, grey, black or dark color

*IMPORTANT: All staff will be given 4 official logo t-shirts (new staff) or 2 official logo t-shirts (returning staff) on arrival, however, it is important you bring the required uniform items listed above also.

Additional Recommended Items for all staff: (these items are not compulsory but highly recommended.)

Waterproof jacket with a hood
2-3 pairs of blue jeans
2 bathing suits - camp appropriate (no string bikinis or thongs please)
Minimum 10 pair underwear & socks
Sneakers
Sandals or beach shoes
A pair hard shoes or boots for wet weather
Sleepwear/pajamas
Hat, sunglasses, bug spray, sun block
Toiletries (deodorant, shampoo, shower gel, toothbrush and paste etc.)

 We will be taking all staff to a superstore during orientation so you can bring a small amount of toiletries with you and stock up once you are here to save using valuable luggage space if you prefer.

Beach Towel
Flashlight
Alarm clock
Small backpack or bag for days off
Casual (non-uniform) clothing for time off - we recommend you don't bring expensive clothing to camp.

Bedding, Linens and Towels

Domestic staff should bring the following:

2 twin size flat sheets & 2 twin size fitted sheets
1 pillow, 2 pillow cases
Blanket or comforter
4 bath towels
2 beach towels

International staff will be provided with blankets, linens and bath towels at no charge unless you prefer to bring your own. A sleeping bag can also be very useful.

IMPORTANT: Please DO NOT bring items that pose a safety risk to camp, campers or staff or that are not appropriate for a children's camping environment for example, no knives, candles, adult media or materials etc. We recommend you do not bring expensive items or jewelry, camp is not and cannot be held responsible for any lost or stolen items. No Alcohol or Drugs are permitted on camp grounds at any time.

Camp Store

Any staff member wanting to purchase any Official Camp Uniform items (Not Compulsory) can do so through the camp store link on our website. Also you may prefer to have the store ship any orders directly to camp, please contact the office to obtain correct shipping address and ensure correct labeling. We will also be offering an opportunity to purchase additional uniform items during orientation if requested.

PLEASE MAKE SURE NO BAGGAGE OR CLOTHING ORDERS ARRIVE BEFORE JUNE 18TH.